He had told of this offer from Russell and supposed Love had not understood. He said he did not take kindly to Russell's proposition and the weekly would not agree to it further than to pay Dudley's expenses to New York.

He said Russell did not pose as Collier's agent and there was nothing said about his testifying before the investigating committee.

Members of the committee and attorneys on both sides questioned Mr.
Dudley at length and apparently satisfied themselves there had been no effort to influence testimony improperly before the committee.

C. C. Keltman, former chief of the mineral division of the interior department, will take the stand tomorrow.

Attorney Vertrees, counsel for Bal-than a dozen witnesses to examine.

SHIP SUBSIDY PLANS

WASHINGTON, April 22.—The direct interest of members of the executive committee of the Merchant Marine league of the United States in legislation they urged was brought out at today's hearing before the ship subsidy investigating committee.

Prosecuting Attorney Ralston, counsel for Representative Stearnson of Minnesota, the aggrieved member under the league's propaganda, produced Secretary Penton of the league as to the effects of the second clause of the Humphrey bill. The witness admitted a large portion of the committee and other officials were engaged in production and transportation of iron ore and steel and would thereby be benefited by the additional protection of the large increase in tonnage duties on vessels entering from certain countries.

Mr. Penton said that view of the matter had not occurred to him before, nor did he believe the question of pecuniary or direct interest of any kind had occurred to any of the officials mentioned.

Attorney Ralston wanted to know about the published reference in "American Flag" the league's organ, to "representatives of the foreign shipping combination in and out of congress."

"Who do you mean by 'in congress'?"
demanded Ralston.

"That applies to Representative Stearnson," replied the witness. "We felt from his attitude and his bitter attack on the league his motive was not worthy; that he was interested in the other side of the question."

Penton declared the foreign interests dominated the Merchants' association of New York and that the league would serve agents have been in Washington working in the interest of foreign shipping, meaning thereby the members of the Merchants' association who had appeared before the merchant marine committee of the house.

"Appeared regularly at a hearing?"
demanded Ralston.

"Yes, sir," replied the witness. "We felt from his attitude and his bitter attack on the league his motive was not worthy;

of the question."

SENATE HAS TROUBLE MAINTAINING QUORUM

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Beginning its session at 10 o'clock today in the entanglement over the question of a quorum, the senate adjourned a few minutes before 5 o'clock, when it was unable to muster enough members to continue business.

The debate on the section of the bill permitting the railroads to enter into traffic agreements continued throughout the afternoon, the principal participants being Senators Crawford, Sutherland, Clapp, Cummins, Elkins and Carter. For the most part the controversy partook of what to a layman would be considered hair-splitting, the chief contention being whether the provision in the Crawford amendment, making agreements subject to the approval of the interstate commerce commission, has the effect of requiring this approval before the agreements take effect.

After the pros and cons of this question had been presented at some length, it appeared for a few moments as though a vote might be obtained. The ayes and noes had been ordered, when Senator Dolliver expressed a desire to be heard on the amendment. As he did not want to proceed at so late an hour, some friendly senators raised the point of no quorum.

Only forty-four senators responded to their names, and the senate was compelled to close its session earlier than Mr. Elkins desired. He tried to obtain an order for another 11 o'clock meeting, but as the call of the senate was begun he was ruled out of order. The senate will not meet tomorrow until 12 o'clock, the usual hour.

Our Coupon Offer of Cream Dandy Bread a Surprising Success--

Our up-to-date methods, together with the absolute superiority of our Cream Dandy bread, win instant success.

Coupons poured into the grocery stores for the past two days, demonstrating the fact that the Salt Lake housewife wants to be relieved from the five-hour-a-week baking if she can obtain absolutely pure bread---the Cream Dandy.

We do not knock our competitors to gain trade; our enormous business was gained by fair and square methods. It came to us by using up-to-date methods and turning out goods of Quality. Our bread is 100% pure, and we can prove it. It does not contain acids or monoxide gases, thereby making it sour, causing indigestion.

Our big offer in this paper was made to educate the public to the advantage of using wholesome baker's bread, properly baked, and not to knock our competitors.

Our up-to-date plant is most sanitary and complete in the state. This statement can be proven by the city authorities and the committee of the Civic Society of the Federation of Ladies' Clubs.

We thank the public at large for the hearty support given us.
